

HuFriedyGroup Introduces New Online Resource Center to Help Dentists Bounce Back as Offices Reopen

Product bundles and special offers, patient communication tools, ongoing education, and new comprehensive resource center facilitate infection prevention best practices

Chicago, June 16, 2020 – HuFriedyGroup, a wholly owned subsidiary of Cantel Medical Corp. (NYSE: CMD), and the global leader in infection prevention, instrument manufacturing, and instrument reprocessing workflows, introduced their new “Bounce Back-to-Practice” online resource center (Hu-Friedy.com/back-to-practice). This new hub allows easy access to world-class products and the additional infection prevention solutions, services, and support for clinicians and staff that HuFriedyGroup has developed since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Information on tiered discounted bundle options for the essential products needed for infection prevention protocols, education, consultations, and patient communication tools are all included on the new online site for a holistic approach to helping clinicians successfully get back to their practices post office closures and restrictions.

“These have been unprecedented and challenging times for us all. During these months, we have continued to stay close to our distribution partners and the dental professionals that we serve. The financial strain that the COVID-19 situation has created is not alien to us. The heightened awareness of the importance of infection prevention and elimination of points of cross-contamination is critical to address for the peace of mind of staff and patients alike. As a global leader in infection prevention, we have a complete ‘Circle of Protection’ portfolio of products that make a significant difference in protecting the dental professional, the patient, and the practice. We have everything that dentists need to get back to work and we have options that address each practice’s individual situation. With all there is to do and worry about in reopening a dental office, it is our goal to make access to products, education, and information as simple as possible so they can bounce back faster, stronger and safer than ever,” said Ken Serota, President, HuFriedyGroup.
